

POLICIES AND PRACTICES OF THE INSTITUTE

NONDENOMINATIONAL AND INDEPENDENT

The Institute is not affiliated or connected with any sect or denomination. It is not a training school of any association, denomination, or group of churches. The faculty, the members of the board of trustees, and the student body represent twenty or more Christian bodies. Therefore, all doctrinal teaching is based solely on the Holy Bible.

NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATORY POLICY

The Brookes Bible Institute admits students of any race, color, age, sex, and national and ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, sex, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, and other school administered programs.

THE BROOKES BIBLE INSTITUTE'S MISSION

The Brookes Bible Institute is established as a training school which seeks to give each student a thorough knowledge of God's Word and then to help him/her utilize this knowledge in various fields of Christian activity, to the end that souls may be saved, Christians strengthened, and the glory and honor redound to our Blessed Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Bible study technique is therefore given special emphasis in every program and course.

PURPOSE OF THE INSTITUTE

The purpose of every program of Bible study at Brookes is to meet the needs of those called into full-time Christian service and of those who wish to supplement their secular education with a thorough study of the English Bible. Such students are better able to serve the Lord in their home, church and the marketplace.
